HR Policies Scope, Exceptions & Compliance

Scope, Exceptions and Compliance

- The Scope, Exceptions and Compliance of this policy shall be as defined in the relevant sections of the ES Global Policy Framework \(https://esglobal.staff.wiki/301,Page,es_global_policy_framework,KB.aspx\).
- This policy applies to:
 - All Employees – Required to understand, implement, and uphold ES Global's anti-slavery principles.
 - Suppliers – A person or organisation who provide good or services to our organisation, this includes suppliers, vendors, contractors, sub-contractors and labour agencies are expected to meet our anti-slavery standards, comply with legal obligations, and evidence workers' rights (including the right to work in the UK, supported by CSCS cards – when available at certain site's during inductions).
- This policy is not contractual but outlines the way in which ES Global aims to manage modern slavery obligations.

Definitions

- Modern Slavery - When an individual is exploited by others, for personal or commercial gain. Whether tricked, coerced, or forced, they lose their freedom. This includes but is not limited to human trafficking, forced labor and debt bondage.

Objective

- ES Global Holdings Limited, including subsidiaries, is a global leader in relocatable architecture for major events. We are committed to ethical business practices and transparency in our supply chains, addressing and preventing modern slavery and human trafficking risks throughout our operations.
- As part of our compliance with Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and our membership with the Gangmasters and Labour Abuse Authority (GLAA), our Modern Slavery Policy embodies robust procedures, regular audits, and a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery.
- This policy outlines ES Global's dedication to a transparent, ethical approach to modern slavery and human trafficking in all our activities. It supports adherence to the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015 and international human rights laws while guiding operational processes and supply chain practices.

Policy Statements

Key Risks and Controls

- ES Global recognises specific modern slavery risks within our operations and supply chain:
 1. Transportation and Logistics Services – Risk exposure includes forced labour practices in logistics and subcontracted transport.
 2. Labor and Temporary Staffing – Using local labor and temporary staffing in regions with varied labor protections may expose us to forced labor and exploitation risks.
 3. Manufacturing Supply Chain – Risks include potential forced labor in manufacturing, particularly in regions with limited oversight.
- We address (controls) these risks by conducting continuous training, supplier due diligence, and implementing incident reporting mechanisms to ensure compliance with ethical labour practices.

Governance and Oversight

Governance and Oversight

- Our governance framework is designed to enforce strict compliance and accountability across ES Global:
 - Board of Directors – Accountable for the oversight and annual review of this policy.
 - HR Department and Compliance Team – Manages anti-slavery policy updates, coordinates training programs, and ensures policy communication across all levels of the organisation. Ensures adherence to anti-slavery measures, overseeing due diligence processes, tracking incident reports, and responding to compliance concerns
 - Employees – All employees involved in purchasing decisions are responsible for assessing and managing risks within the supply chain.

Policy and Procedural Measures

- Whistleblowing Policy – Ensures that employees and other stakeholders can confidentially report any suspected instances of unethical practices, including modern slavery, without fear of retaliation.
- Code of Conduct – All employees are expected to adhere to strict ethical standards that support ES Global's anti-slavery stance.
- Supplier Code of Conduct – We mandate adherence to anti-slavery principles across all suppliers, especially those in high-risk supply areas.
- Employment and Recruitment Standards – We exclusively use reputable employment agencies that have been vetted to ensure compliance with modern slavery standards. Our recruitment process requires workers to have individual bank accounts and supports independent financial control.
- Due Diligence and Self-Assessment Tools – Applying the UK Government developed Modern Slavery Assessment Tool (MSAT) to assess high-risk areas. Supplier due diligence check and self-assessments allow us to prioritise modern slavery awareness among high-risk supply chains.

Training and Awareness Initiatives

- Modern Slavery Awareness Training – All employees involved in the management and procurement within our supply chain are required to complete mandatory modern slavery awareness training. This training is regularly updated to reflect best practices and any changes in legislation.
- Sector-Specific Training – Employees in higher-risk regions or sectors receive focused training tailored to local conditions and risks.
 - Our modern slavery training covers:
 - our business's purchasing practices, which influence supply chain conditions, and which should therefore be designed to prevent purchases at unrealistically low prices, the use of labour engaged on unrealistically low wages or wages below a country's national minimum wage, or the provision of products by an unrealistic deadline;
 - how to assess the risk of slavery and human trafficking in relation to various aspects of the business, including resources and support available;
 - how to identify the signs of slavery and human trafficking;
 - what initial steps should be taken if slavery or human trafficking is suspected;
 - how to escalate potential slavery or human trafficking issues to the relevant parties within our organisation;
 - what external help is available, for example through the Modern Slavery Helpline, Gangmasters and Labour Abuse Authority and "Stronger together" initiative; and
 - what steps our organisation should take if suppliers do not implement anti-slavery policies in high-risk scenarios, including their removal from our supply chains.

Worker Rights and Reporting Mechanisms

- ES Global prioritises open, accessible channels for worker feedback and grievance reporting:
 - Anonymous Reporting Channels – Mechanisms such as anonymous reporting form allow employees and suppliers to report concerns confidentially.
 - Employee Representation and Communication – We advocate for representation and encourage direct communication, including regular project meetings and post-project debrief meetings for workers in call-off suppliers, providing dedicated spaces for issue discussion.
 - Feedback Mechanisms and Data Analytics – Worker feedback is also collected via anonymous surveys and grievance channels. Collected feedback will be analysed and identified risk patterns, allowing early intervention where concerns arise.
